

Support the supporters Luncheon

Wednesday 14 June, Hawley House

Anglicare Tasmania is proud to host a free event for people supporting loved ones experiencing addiction. The intimate high tea will feature guest speakers Chris Bakon and Rahnee Butterworth.

Chris Bakon was a Tasmanian contestant on the SBS series Alone Australia. He was diagnosed with PTSD following his service in the Iraq war. Chris will share his experiences with addiction and the importance of the support he received from family and friends.

Rahnee Butterworth works for Mental Health and Families Tasmania. She holds Bachelor degrees in Social Work (Honours) and Psychological Science. She will speak about her experience of supporting a loved one with addiction.

Where: Hawley House, 68 Hawley Esplanade, Hawley Beach, Port Sorell.

When: Wednesday 14 June

Time: 11 am – 2 pm

RSVP: Seats are limited so please register your attendance by contacting Jasmine Murphy on 0418 255 703.

This free event is hosted by Anglicare's Family Support Service and SMART Family and Friends program. It is available in the North and North West of Tasmania.
